Article 8. Cookies

- 8.1. Cycle Classic Tours uses functional cookies for the purpose of optimizing the performance of certain pages of the website. Cookies are small text files that are stored on the computer of User by a page of the website. Such a cookie stores information, such as specific preferences of User. As a result of that Cycle Classic Tours is able to provide a better service to User during a next visit, for instance by using the domain names that User checked and stored, or the contents of the shopping basket. As a result of that User is not required to enter the same information each time. That considerably increases the user-friendliness of the website.
- 8.2. User himself may determine how cookies must be used. He can adjust his browser in such a way that the use of functional cookies is allowed, is partly allowed or is disabled. In the latter case it can be defined which websites may place functional cookies. Placing cookies by any other websites is in that case disabled. This opportunity is offered by most frequently used modern browsers.
- 8.3. Cookies may be removed from a computer at any point in time, also by adjusting browser settings.
- 8.4. Cycle Classic Tours also uses marketing cookies in order to personalize the communication of Cycle Classic Tours of both its own website and its partner sites, and to adjust said communication to the demands of the individual User.
- 8.5. Cycle Classic Tours uses analytical cookies which process not the surfing behaviour of individuals but that of large numbers of visitors into anonymous graphics and patterns which enable Cycle Classic Tours to improve and optimize the websites.
- 8.6. Analytical cookies are placed without the consent of User only if said cookies do not infringe or are merely minor infringements on User's privacy.

Article 9. Security precautions

- 9.1. In order to prevent access to data of User by unauthorized parties Cycle Classic Tours has taken various security precautions including measures preventing unauthorized access, use, modification, wrongful and unintended destruction and unintended loss of data.
- 9.2. Data that are provided to Cycle Classic Tours through the website are stored in a secure web environment.

Article 10. Privacy policies of third parties

- 10.1. This Privacy Statement does not apply to any websites of third parties that are connected to the Website by means of links. Cycle Classic Tours does not accept any responsibility or liability whatsoever for the way in which said websites use personal data. For more information on the way in which said third parties use personal data and such User needs to refer to the privacy policy of the website concerned.

Article 11. Modification

- 11.1. Cycle Classic Tours reserves the right to unilaterally modify this Privacy Statement. Modification of or additions to the Privacy Statement are published on the Website. Cycle Classic Tours advises User to regularly check the Privacy Statement.
